COMMISSIONER'S FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

A. FINDINGS OF FACT

9. LER Investment Properties, L.L.C. ("LER") purports to be a limited liability company with a mailing address of P.O. Box 320842, Kansas City, Missouri 64132.
10. Louis E. Robinson ("Robinson") is the owner and agent for LER and has an address of 6918 South Benton Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri 64132.
11. On October 5, 2006, Robinson spoke with a Missouri resident ("MR") by telephone about an investment in a real estate program. During the October 5, 2006 telephone call, Robinson told MR, among other things, that:
 - a. "I am a self-employed loan officer and loan originator and have been for the last seven years. I also own my own company. I started out as an investor in real estate doing small deals and have established many relationships with other investors. I educate investors about the best way to invest their funds in the real estate market. I also provide investors with direction about where to invest, and how to turn a property in six months or less;"
 - b. "Real estate is a better investment than putting money in mutual funds or bonds. I have NEVER lost money on a real estate investment;"
 - c. "I am looking for a long term relationship with someone. We will sign a joint venture agreement spelling out my responsibilities and your responsibilities. Your responsibility is to provide the funds, and I will be responsible for the rehab, the market analysis, finding the clients, and for doing the loan;"
 - d. "We can handle it one or two ways, if you're looking for long term monthly income, I can also do that, or we can split the profits 50/50 at the sale. It's your decision. If you are looking for your money to gain anywhere between 12-13% interest, it's your decision;"

- e. "I'm only looking for one cash investor because I have three that I'm already working with. We start out with a minimum of five hundred thousand dollars and as the relationship moves forward, we go up to several million;" and
 - f. All MR had to do was to hold the deed on the property and to provide the cash to both purchase the property and make any necessary repairs.
12. On October 11, 2006, Robinson sent information to MR, via facsimile, indicating, among other things, that:
- a. Robinson would locate, buy, and sell single family homes that are in distressed condition. Robinson would be responsible for doing the market analysis on the property, the rehabilitation work, and would be responsible for getting potential buyers qualified for loans to purchase the investment property;
 - b. Robinson would bring the deals to MR, and that if MR agreed then MR would wire funds directly to the title company to be placed in an escrow account to be drawn on for necessary repairs and for the purchase price of the property. When the property was sold, the proceeds would be in MR's name and the joint venture agreement would state that all profits from the sale would be split evenly between MR and Robinson; and
 - c. if MR would invest a minimum of three million dollars ($3,000,000.00), then MR would earn ten (10) to twelve (12) percent return on the investment.
13. On October 17, 2006, Robinson provided MR with a list of other investors to contact for references. The correspondence indicated that the references were of other investors that Robinson had worked with on past investments. One of these references provided on this list was Sebomia Norris.
14. On October 19, 2006, Robinson contacted MR and told MR, among other things, the following:
- a. if MR could loan Robinson at least one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), then Robinson would sign a promissory note; and
 - b. this promissory note would provide an interest rate and a specific length of time to repay the loan.
15. On October 20, 2006, Robinson sent MR, via facsimile, a copy of a sample adjustable rate note, deed of trust, and mortgage documents with the actual terms and conditions of the contracts redacted.
16. On October 26, 2006, Robinson sent, via facsimile, to MR a copy of a sample joint venture agreement that Robinson claimed he had used in the past.
17. On November 16, 2006, the Division sent an inquiry to Robinson, via certified mail, at the address listed on his business card and requested, among other things, any claim of exemption relied upon in offering securities in the State of Missouri.

18. The Division's November 16, 2006 correspondence was returned by the U.S. Postal service on December 29, 2006, as "unclaimed."
19. On January 5, 2007, the Division sent another inquiry to Robinson, via regular mail, to his business and his home addresses and requested, among other things, any claim of exemption relied upon in offering securities in the State of Missouri.
20. On January 17, 2007, the Division received a written response from Robinson. The response did not answer all the questions requested by the Division, but stated, among other things, that:
 - a. "Nothing has ever been bought or sold under LER Investment LLC;" and
 - b. "The Division's January 6, 2007 letter about the unlawful sale of securities in the form of adjustable rate notes is totally and absolutely false."
21. On February 15, 2007, the Division sent an inquiry to Robinson, via regular mail and certified mail, to his home address and requested, among other things, any claim of exemption relied upon in offering securities in the State of Missouri. In addition, the letter requested information about promotional material used and the names and addresses of other investors in the joint venture.
22. On March 12, 2007, the Division received a written response from Robinson. In this response Robinson stated, among other things, that:
 - a. "The only entities or affiliates with me and my company are my wife, Sebomia Norris;"
 - b. "There are no investors that purchased notes from me NEVER;"
 - c. "No one has been solicited to purchase notes from me NEVER;"
 - d. "There are NO names or numbers of any investors that have purchased notes from me;"
 - e. "No one has made any offer of sales or securities in the State of Missouri;"
 - f. "There are no contracts or documents used or notes, promissory notes, loans, or other investment partners involved with the sales of securities;"
 - g. "There are no names or addresses of any people that I know of that I have solicited for securities in the State of Missouri;"
 - h. "LER Investment Properties LLC has not made a single penny; therefore there are no reports or financial records of any kind." (Emphasis in original)."
23. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities confirmed no registration or granted exemption for Robinson or LER in the State of Missouri.
24. Respondents were not registered to offer and sell securities in or from the State of Missouri.

25. Respondent LER has not registered any issuer agents to offer or sell securities in the State of Missouri.
26. The securities offered by the Respondents were not federal covered securities.
27. MR was not told, among other things, the following information regarding the investment:
 - a. that on July 20, 2004, a civil judgment was entered against Robinson in Dot's Office Products Inc. vs. Louis Robinson Case Number 04CV203706-01, Jackson County Circuit Court. This judgment was entered against Robinson in the amount of three thousand six hundred and eighty-eight dollars and thirty-three cents, ($3,688.33), plus prejudgment interest in the amount of eighty dollars[1] with interest at 9% per annum from July 20, 2005 forward, court costs, and twenty five dollars ($25.00) in fees;
 - b. that Robinson and LER were not registered to offer to sell securities in or from the State of Missouri;
 - c. that the securities were not registered in the State of Missouri;
 - d. facts or information regarding the financial condition of LER;
 - e. facts or information regarding the background, history and experience of Robinson;
 - f. facts or information regarding the risks of the investment;
 - g. that one of the listed references was the spouse of Robinson;
 - h. that LER had "not made a single penny."
